Auschwitz Concentration Camp opened in former Polish army barracks in June 1940. Twenty brick buildings were adapted, of which 6 were two-story and 14 were single-story. At the end of 1940, prisoners began adding second stories to the single-story blocks. The following spring, they started erecting 8 new blocks. This work reached completion in the first half of 1942. The result was a complex.

New Life Camp has absolutely changed my life in many ways. I have had the privilege of being a part of the camp from being a camper to working their with all different responsibilities. Through my time, I have learned to work, learned to serve, and most importantly learned what a life surrendered to God looks like. I have never experienced a more spiritually loving, caring and nurturing
