Every Good Endeavour Tim Keller. Book Reflection by Paul Bynn Author: The author Timothy Keller is a pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian Church. I believe Keller is well fitted to write a book on the nature of work, for his church has a majority of young workers and his 23 years of experience would allow him give great insight on this topic.

Every Good Endeavor Quotes by Timothy J. Keller

Everyone will be forgotten, nothing we do will make any difference, and all good endeavours, even the best, will come to naught. Unless there is God. If the God of the Bible exists, and there is a True Reality beneath and behind this one, and this life is not the only life, then every good

Every Good Endeavour by Timothy J. Keller

In 1990, Doug Sherman wrote "Your Work Matters to God." It's a great book and highly recommended. But it is a bit dated and thus, I picked up Tim Keller's more recent treatment on the theology of work, "Every Good Endeavor," and I am very happy I did so.
